Why is safeguarding important?

This Safeguarding Children, Young People and Adults Course will build on your knowledge of safeguarding vulnerable groups. When you have completed the awareness training, you should have a better understanding of what makes individuals vulnerable and the services that protect children, young people and adults.

National Health Service - NHS

Who is safeguarding training for?

Our Safeguarding – Vulnerable People Course is for anyone who works in the health and social care sector and works with service users who require care of some sort.

This course will offer your staff quick and effective safeguarding training to help them become aware of certain situations. The training is suitable for private and public sector companies, including community homes (care homes) and other organisations in the healthcare sector.

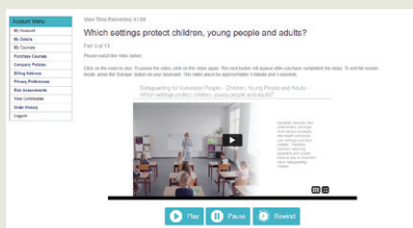

What does the Safeguarding – For Vulnerable People Course cover?

The Safeguarding – For Vulnerable People Course answers the following questions:

- Which settings protect children, young people and adults?
- What are Local Safeguarding Boards?
- What is the Local Safeguarding Board for children/young people?
- What is the Local Safeguarding Board for adults?

What is the benefit of safeguarding training to your business?

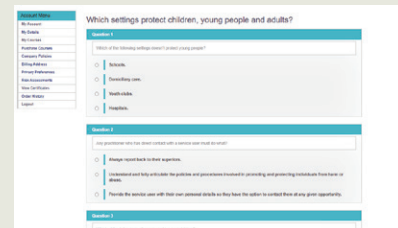

This course will offer your staff quick and effective safeguarding training to help them become aware of the different types of people who are more susceptible to abuse and therefore potentially in higher need of safeguarding.
